Glen Cove Mansion Adopts Four Families This Christmas Season

Provides Gifts & Christmas Eve Dinner

Glen Cove, New York, December 24, 2009 ... During this most festive time of the year, Glen Cove Mansion is working with the Glen Cove Youth Board and their Adopt- A - Family program to help spread as much cheer as possible within the community. To do so, the Mansion has “adopted” four families, helping ensure their Christmas is as joyful as possible.

Glen Cove Mansion’s staff purchased gifts for the families’ children, consisting of clothes, coats and toys. Also purchased was a house gift for the parents. Finally, Christmas Eve dinner consisting of turkey, sides of potatoes and vegetables as well as dessert and a case of beverages were delivered with the gifts by Glen Cove Mansion “elves” to the four families.

“It is so important to be an active member of our community and help out wherever we can,” said Ata Kashanian, general manager at Glen Cove Mansion. “Christmas should be a wonderful time for everyone and we’re so pleased to help four families in our community have the best Christmas possible.”
