“Love is in the Air” this Valentine’s Day at charming, historic Glen Cove Mansion

101 Years of Romance on Long Island’s North Shore

Glen Cove, New York, January 2012 ... Is there anything more romantic than Audrey Hepburn as Sabrina living on Dosoris Lane on Long Island’s fabled North Shore? This Valentine’s Day, anyone can experience love on Dosoris Lane at Glen Cove Mansion, located at 200 Dosoris Lane, which is presenting its “Love is in the Air” romance package.

For over a century, Glen Cove Mansion has welcomed lovers to its picturesque 55-acre estate – the original country house of Brooklyn, Manhattan & Glen Cove’s renowned Pratt family, founders and endowers of the highly respected Pratt Institute. Glen Cove Mansion’s elegant Georgian mansion, manicured lawns, natural woodlands, and its gorgeous views of Long Island Sound all await lovers who want to get away to the romance of the North Shore. If they wish, couples can even take the train to Glen Cove right to the original train station Sabrina arrived at in the classic film.

The Love is in the Air package includes:

- One or two romantic nights in one of Glen Cove Mansion’s newly renovated, spacious guestrooms
 - Sweet & tempting chocolate-covered strawberries
 - Chilled champagne upon arrival to the Mansion
 - A $50 gift certificate towards The Pub 1910 restaurant on the Mansion’s 3rd floor with views to Long Island Sound
 - Breakfast in the beautiful Garden Room Restaurant
- From $199 per couple per night

Glen Cove Mansion is one of a small number of Long Island Gilded Age mansion hotels open to the public on the fabled North Shore Gold Coast.
