Glen Cove Mansion “Adopts” Three Families This Christmas Season

Provides Gifts & Christmas Dinner

Glen Cove, New York, December 31, 2010 ... For the second consecutive year, Glen Cove Mansion worked with the Glen Cove Youth Board and their Adopt-A-Family program, providing gifts for three area families in need this holiday season.

Glen Cove Mansion’s staff purchased gifts for the families’ children, and a house gift for the parents. Delivered just before Christmas, the families were also provided Christmas Dinner consisting of turkey, potatoes, vegetables, dessert and a case of beverages.

“After becoming involved in this program last year, and seeing the great work they are doing for local families in need,” said Ata Kashanian, vice president and managing director for Glen Cove Mansion, “we wanted to assist this holiday season too. The gifts and dinner benefited families in our area, who are part of our community. We felt that was important and were so glad we could help.”
