

Glen Cove Mansion Hotel Announces
"Family Summer Camp" Package

Glen Cove, Long Island, NY, June 2010 ... Glen Cove Mansion Hotel has just announced a special "Family Summer Camp" package designed to provide a mini-vacation loaded with value for families this summer.

The spacious and beautiful 55-acre Long Island property is located just 45 minutes from Manhattan and close to Long Island Sound. Glen Cove Mansion's Summer Camp for families includes full use of the Mansion's large outdoor pool and sun decks, complete health & fitness amenities including an indoor pool, 4 tennis courts (racquets and balls provided), basketball, and acres of lawns available for a game of football or baseball.

Also included are bikes for exploring groomed trails throughout the century-old estate's acreage, access to the nearby beaches of Long Island Sound, and even croquet and lawn bowling for those families looking for a more relaxed way to spend the afternoon together. Additionally, the Family Summer Camp package provides a pay-per-view movie in their guestroom, featuring a variety of current selections... at no additional cost!

If they need more, the Mansion's service team can schedule visits to Sagamore Hill National Historic Museum (President Theodore Roosevelt's estate), to the nearby historic Gold Coast Mansion Museums open to the public, or offer suggestions for shopping and site-seeing in charming and historic Glen Cove and Oyster Bay.

When evening rolls in, there's Happy Hour at the outdoor pool or in the Mansion's top floor restaurant and billiard rooms, Pub 1910, with Kids Cocktails for the children and more adult-oriented beverages for mom & dad.

Glen Cove Mansions' Family Summer Camp is $249 per night for a family of four and extends through Labor Day weekend.
