

Glen Cove Mansion Hotel and Conference Center to Offer Vintage Field Day Corporate Outings
55 Acres of Good Old Fashioned "Teambuilding" Fun for $55!

Glen Cove, Long Island, NY, June 2010 ... The award-winning Glen Cove Mansion Hotel and Conference Center has announced a new teambuilding initiative that reaches back in time – to the Roaring 20s.

The former country estate of Standard Oil executive John T. Pratt and his wife, Ruth Baker Pratt -- one of New York's first congresswomen in Washington, DC, is celebrating its Centennial in 2010 by reaching back to help companies and organizations move forward. Included are vintage activities that brought groups together in the past and are still beloved by groups in the 21st Century.

Glen Cove Mansion's Vintage Field Day (teambuilding) Package includes:

- Customized vintage "field day" activities ~ such as tug-of-war, 3-legged races, egg toss, lawn bowling, a game of croquet and more
- Roaring 20s-themed cocktail reception and dinner.
- Over 55 acres of spacious landscaped lawns and gardens ~ plenty of space for a field day
- Meeting room

All this for $55 per person per day. Add an overnight stay and the package becomes $149 per person per night.

Glen Cove Mansion is just 30 minutes from New York City and the airports, yet a world away from the urban distractions. Train access is available from New York's Penn Station.
