Mother's Day Dinner on the Gold Coast!

Glen Cove, New York, April 2011 ... Glen Cove Mansion and Executive Chef Andy Helliwell announce "Mother's Day Dinner on the Gold Coast," Sunday, May 8th. Moms, dads and the kids will dine in splendid elegance not often seen since on the Long Island Gold Coast since The Great Gatsby era of a century ago!

Mother's Day Dinner on the Gold Coast will offer two seatings: 1 pm and 4 pm. Included at Dinner will be all the holiday favorites, as well as carving stations featuring savory selections, a pasta station, and specialties of the house created by European-trained Executive Chef Helliwell, inspired by the grand dining experiences of America's storied Gilded Age.

Guests from out-of-town guests can receive a special Mother's Day weekend guestroom rate of just from $169 per room per night at Glen Cove Mansion. Luxurious guestroom accommodations include the full use of the Mansion's health amenities, new fitness center, indoor pool, whirlpool, steam room, as well as 55 acres of pristine gardens and manicured lawns in the heart of Long Island's historic Gold Coast, ideal for quiet nature walks, biking, and tennis. After hours, the Mansion's Pub 1910, situated in the Mansion's former third floor billiard rooms, provides premium beverages, superb food, and striking views of Long Island Sound.

Mother's Day Dinner on the Gold Coast is $49.95 for adults and $23.95 for children ages 13 and under (children age 3 and under are complimentary). Guests are encouraged to call Glen Cove Mansion at (516) 674-2955 for Mother's Day Dinner reservations and more information.
