Glen Cove Mansion, One of the First Conference Centers in the US, Presented With 9th Pinnacle Award of Excellence

Glen Cove, New York, June 2011 ... Glen Cove Mansion Hotel and Conference Center has been awarded the 2011 “Pinnacle Award” from readers of Successful Meetings, a leading national trade magazine. The Pinnacle Award is recognized across the country as a mark of excellence in meeting destinations. The prestigious award is given annually to those properties that have been outstanding in servicing meetings and incentive programs throughout the year.

“We are truly honored to be presented with our 9th Pinnacle Award,” said Ata Kashanian, vice president and general manager for Glen Cove Mansion. “For over 40 years, the Mansion has been serving New York City, Long Island, and in select cases global companies with meeting excellence. It is such an honor to receive this recognition by our customers.”

This year is the 15th time the Pinnacle Awards have recognized conference center excellence in the United States. Over the years, the award has earned a reputation as one of the most credible and prestigious symbols of quality among meeting planners and hoteliers alike.

Readers of Successful Meetings are professional decision makers who plan meetings, events, conferences, and incentive programs throughout the year, and each spring vote for the winners of the Pinnacle Awards via online ballots, giving feedback based on their professional experiences domestically and even worldwide for the top conference center hotels. The 2011 Pinnacle Award Winners will be listed in the August Pinnacle Registry in print and online at www.successfulmeetings.com/pinnacle.
