Glen Cove Mansion Introduces A Wedding Worthy of The Great Gatsby!

Recalls Long Island Gold Coast Legacy of Champagne, Exquisite Food, Glittering Hospitality

Glen Cove, New York, December 2007 ... Glen Cove Mansion Hotel, the landmark Georgian estate located on Long Island's historic Gold Coast and once the country home of the renowned Pratt family of Standard Oil fame, is drawing on its legendary heritage of first-class hospitality by introducing a wedding celebration unlike any other. Elegantly packaged as "The Great Gatsby Wedding," Glen Cove Mansion offers the best of the storied Long Island Gold Coast with 21st Century culinary and service expectations. The Gold Coast was F. Scott Fitzgerald's inspiration for the great American classic love story, The Great Gatsby.

From the moment guests drive through Glen Cove Mansion's gates, they are warmly welcomed into the intimate and elegant ambiance of this historic estate, with its grand Georgian mansion and 55 acres of exquisitely groomed lawns and gardens. They'll find themselves transported to another world where all senses are engaged and a spirited, elegant atmosphere is the main course.

The distinctive architectural appointments of Glen Cove Mansion's Receiving Hall, with its Grand Double Staircase, seduces guests into the elegant ambiance of estate's former Manor House. The seduction continues with the soft romantic glow of flickering candles, glittering crystal chandeliers, and elaborately carved marble mantle pieces.

Just like a bride on her wedding day, Glen Cove Mansion casts a spell with its visual bouquet of artistry, ambiance, tantalizing culinary excellence, and superbly attentive service.

And for those brides who adore aspects of The Great Gatsby Wedding but wish for additional celebratory festivities, the Wedding Planning Experts at Glen Cove Mansion can completely customize a wedding ceremony, dinner & reception to the exact specifications and preferences of the bride & groom.
