Thanksgiving Feast at Glen Cove Mansion

Holiday Traditions on the Storied North Shore

Glen Cove, Long Island, New York, October 2008 ... North Shore Thanksgiving traditions come alive this holiday season at Glen Cove Mansion. For nearly a century the Mansion has launched the holiday season in grand style – first with the renowned John & Ruth Pratt, their children and grandchildren, and now for every North Shore family.

Executive Chef Christopher Meyers has created a holiday feast that will recall the best Thanksgivings of yesteryear, and which is sure to create new memories for North Shore families of all varieties this season.

Glen Cove Mansion's Thanksgiving Feast will be served in the elegant Garden Dining Room, which features sweeping views of the estate's English gardens and the acres of manicured lawns. Seatings are at 12:00 Noon, 3:00 pm and 6:00 pm. The Mansion's private dining rooms -- the Crystal, Beech, Oak and Meadow Rooms -- are available for an additional amount for those preferring to celebrate Thanksgiving privately with their families.

The Thanksgiving Feast at the Mansion is $58.95 per person for adults and $29.50 per person for children ages 4 to 12. Children age 3 and under are complimentary.

For those guests who wish to extend the Thanksgiving celebration, Glen Cove Mansion is providing a special holiday guestroom rate of $159 per room per night with complimentary early check in, based on availability. Overnight guests have full use of the Mansion's health amenities, including the indoor pool, whirlpool, steam room, as well as 55 acres of pristine grounds in the heart of the North Shore, ideal for quiet nature walks, biking, and tennis.
