Thanksgiving at Glen Cove Mansion

The Mansion's 100th Thanksgiving Celebration

Glen Cove, New York, September 2010 ... It's been a century since the John Teele and Ruth Baker Pratt family celebrated their first Thanksgiving at their country estate in Glen Cove. Then known as "The Manor House," the Thanksgiving feast included the large Pratt family and the company of good friends.

Today, Glen Cove Mansion welcomes the public to experience the same gracious hospitality of that first Pratt family Thanksgiving. The Mansion's European-trained Executive Chef Andrew Helliwell has created a Thanksgiving menu that features all the holiday's traditional favorites.

Glen Cove Mansion's 2010 Thanksgiving Buffet Feast will be served in the elegant Garden Terrace restaurant, featuring sweeping views of the formal English-style gardens and acres of groomed lawns. Seatings are at 1:00 pm and 4:00 pm. The Mansion's private dining rooms - the Crystal, Beech, Oak and Meadow salons, are available for an additional amount for those preferring to celebrate Thanksgiving privately. Reservations are $49* per person ($24* for children age 4-13, age 3 and under are complimentary).

For those guests who would like to stay the night at the Mansion, Glen Cove Mansion is also providing a special Thanksgiving holiday rate of $179 per guestroom per night. Overnight guests have full use of the Mansion's health amenities, including the indoor pool, whirlpool, steam room, as well as 55 acres of pristine grounds in the heart of the historic Long Island Gold Coast. The Mansion's Pub 1910, situated in the former third floor billiard rooms, is available after hours and features superb food and beverages, as well as striking views of Long Island Sound.

Reservations for Glen Cove Mansion's Thanksgiving Celebration can be placed by calling 516-674-2990 / 866-850-0521.
